

I am concerned about the migratory bird mortality from towers. I would like to see a review of towers with a focus on the placement and the design of the towers to possibly decrease the killing of birds. Further, all new towers should be subject to environmental reviews. Thank you.